Al Stockholm —Head Coach

AL STOCKHOLM enters season number eight at the Red Dragon helm with a record of 74-92.

An assistant professor of physical education, Stockholm first coached the Red Dragons in 1965-66 and then took over for good with the 1968-69 campaign. His best year was the 13-9 1973-74 club.

Stockholm is a graduate of East Stroudsburg State College in Pennsylvania and also holds an M.A. from the University of Maryland. Stockholm is now in the process of completing his Ph.D. requirements with Indiana University.

In addition to his basketball background, Stockholm, a Montrose, Pennsylvania native, is a top horseshoe competitor and a former state champion.

Before coming to Cortland, Stockholm was basketball coach and a physical education instructor at Allegany Community College, Cumberland, Md.

1972-73	7-15	1971-72	6-14
1971-71	9-12	1969-70	11-10
1968-69	11- 8	1965-66	7-11

JV Coach

Tom Jackson serves as junior varsity basketball coach in addition to his varsity football offensive line coaching duties.

In his third year at Cortland, Jackson is a graduate of Penn State, where he played in three football bowl games and earned national recognition as an offensive guard.

Before coming to Cortland, Jackson taught and coached at Watchung Hills Regional School in Warren, N.J. The native of Scotch Plains, N.J. has also done graduate work at both Seton Hall and Montclair State.

In two years as JV basketball coach, Jackson has compiled a 15-19 record.

Assistant Coach

Bob Battle is a graduate of Lamar University and Jefferson Community College. The Syracuse native lettered for two seasons on Lamar's basketball team, starting at guard for a season.

He was finally snared by Al Stockholm on the third attempt even though his eligibility is gone. Stockholm had tried to recruit Battle after his high school days and again following his junior college career.

Pre-Season Outlook

Cortland will be reaching for the 500 mark this season, not merely attempting to total more wins than losses, but if the Red Dragons win as often as they lose, Cortland will be able to achieve the 500th win in the school's basketball annals.

This year's club needs 11 wins during the 22-game schedule to achieve the 500-victory mark. Entering this year, Red Dragon teams have 417 losses.

The key to Red Dragon fortunes this year is not exactly the Cortland strength. There should be little doubt that a strong year will be received from Cortland's backcourt, but the key to a successful year is up front.

Gone is short forward Pete Weishan, who compiled the 5th best scoring season in Dragon history last year. Also graduated is center Greg Tyler.

If those holes are filled, then the focal points in Cortland's guard-oriented offense will have the necessary help.

Two sophomores and a senior are the top returnees in the backcourt. Tom Mossotti should be the leader in his last year while soph Terry Murphy looks ready to benefit from the lessons of starting as a freshman against experienced foes.

Also back is Darry Becker, who joined the varsity in mid-season, and flashy Bob Dixon, an exciting performer off the bench.

The incumbents are joined by Ed Leone, captain of last year's JVs, and Mark DeNero, a transfer from Mohawk Valley CC like Mossotti and Dixon were a year ago.

Up front, Mark Bennett will try to fill the center spot, though he has been spotty over two back-up seasons. Another pivot possibility is freshman Tom Ryan, strong, aggressive and a good shooter, but lacking experience.

The forwards are populated by question marks. Returnees Tom Wignot and Ed Prue are the two front court members of the 1974-75 group who are back, Ed hoping to return to his shooting form of two years ago and Wignot hoping for a stronger year as his soccer goaltending chores did not cut as deeply into practice time as a year ago when he goaltended Cortland's booters to the ECAC regional title.

24	Wignot, Tom	Sr	F	6-3	180	Walpole, MA

A promising candidate for the short forward role played by Weishan is Wayne Brown, the leading scorer for last year's JVs. A good jumper, Brown saw action in one varsity game as well as last year.

A sizeable transfer who may add strength inside is Staten Island CC product Paul Bianco.
